

NORTHVIEW BAND EARNS ALL-COUNTY SPOTS

Musicians with the Northview Middle School band recently competed during the auditions for the All-County Band. Eight middle school band programs were represented during the audition, with musicians vying for one of the 100 open spots. Conducted by David Wortman, the Northview Middle School band successfully auditioned with a total of 38 musicians earning placement with the All-County Band. Included in those earned 38 spots is first chair in 11 of the 14 instrument groups.

Congratulations to the Northview Middle School Band!
