

Hickory Public Schools

Week in Review

March 4, 2016

“A snapshot of HPS good news”

Preparing for the TORNADO STORM

The Tornado spirit is alive and twisting over at Hickory High School. In fact, the storm is triggering enthusiastic energy across the district—and the community.

Knocking out any Robinson power this weekend is not just Hickory's physical goal, but also a mental goal, according to Poplin. "We tried all year to just focus on getting better each day. Just 'win the day' mentality.

For the full story, click here.

Longview Places in Top Four at CVCCI!

The broadcast team at Longview Elementary, under the instruction of Caroline Brown, media coordinator and communications liaison, submitted a video, competing against entries from elementary through high school. The team placed 4th in the county! The video featured a focus on Black History Month. Well done!

Save the Date!

Hickory Public Schools will host a visit from NC State Superintendent, Dr. June Atkinson on Tuesday evening, April 12, 2016. HPS Superintendent, Dr. Robbie Adell, will welcome and introduce Dr. Atkinson—who will address the state of NC Public Schools, today. The event will be held at St. Luke's United Methodist Church Family Life Center, starting at 5:30 PM. More details to come!

Week in Review is produced by the HPS Communications Office.
All photography is the property of the HPS Communications Office.
For photo use/media inquiries, contact Beverly Snowden, HPS director of communications: