

Hickory Public Schools

Week in Review

September 16, 2016

“A snapshot of HPS good news”

(Above) HCAM Students to be recognized at NC Museum of Art!

Three HCAM graphic arts/photo students will be recognized in Raleigh on 9.28.16 for their creative talents! Congratulations! (L-R) Natasha Stiles, HCAM teacher and winning seniors: Lilliana, Quain, and Jaquelyn.

(Left/below) Scott Rigsby visits Hickory High!

First double amputee to complete the Ironman race, Rigsby shared motivational words at Hickory High! His visit was sponsored by Frye Hospital to prep for the “Unthinkable 5K” race.

Week in Review is produced by the HPS Communications Office.
All photography is the property of the HPS Communications Office. For photo use/media inquiries,
contact Beverly Snowden, HPS
director of communications:
snowdenbe@hickoryschools.net

Jenkins Elementary celebrates JEST Walk-a-Thon!

The recent JEST (Jenkins Elementary Spirit Track) Walk-a-Thon held at Jenkins Elementary was sponsored by the school's PTA. The money raised by JEST goes directly back into the school to help pay for arts enrichment programs, school improvement projects, student planners, and more. This event also emphasizes the importance of exercise and a healthy lifestyle. Thanks to all volunteers & the community for supporting HPS students!

Did you know? The HPS Board of Education meetings are open to the public and they meet twice each month. The schedule (time/location) is posted on the HPS website (hickoryschools.net) with the first meeting serving as the work session. The 2nd meeting serves as the action meeting with various programs and recognitions. Come meet our wonderful BOE members!

(L-R) Bryan Graham, Margaret Pope, Ittiely Carson, Reginald Hamilton (chair), Sallie Johnson (vice chair), Amy Monroe and Julie Correll.

